

Synopsis:

Body & Soul: Diana & Kathy, directed by Academy Award nominee Alice Elliott, is about two disability rights activists, Diana Braun and Kathy Conour. The film chronicles their ongoing struggle to live independently outside of institutions, Diana's desperate search to reconnect with her abusive mother, and the risky journey they take to Washington, D.C. to advocate for the rights of all people with disabilities. For Diana and Kathy, this is a journey that is both physically dangerous and technically illegal. The stakes are uncommonly high. Body & Soul: Diana & Kathy is a story of a profound, creative friendship and about making a difference.
